Dear Mr. President

I am writing you to convey the concerns of Europe's psychologists over the recent series of disasters in Japan and the ensuing loss of life and health by many people.

We offer our condolences to those who have lost relatives, friends and colleagues. We deeply sympathize with you and offer our support in managing the current situation and in alleviating and overcoming the effects of what has happened.

Please let us know how EFPA can be of help to the JPA and its members.

Prof.dr. Robert A. Roe

President EFPA
